

Presence of Arkon Flow Systems s.r.o. at industry fairs 2017

Annotation

The subject of project is participation of Arkon Flow Systems s. r. o. at international trade fairs. Participations on international trade fairs is a big contribution mainly due to orientation on foreign export markets.

The main interest is also support and long-term development of business partnerships with foreign partners.

Objective

The objective of project is applicant's development at planned markets in regions, strengthening current business partnerships, finding new long-terms business partners and and identification of direct business opportunities.

Result

The result is a presence at 3 international trade fairs.

This project from Operational Programme Enterprise and Innovations for Competitiveness is supported by the European Union.

EUROPEAN UNION
European Regional Development Fund
Operational Programme Enterprise and Innovations for Competitiveness

